97-CR-180-001-H: Three years. 98-CR-022-001-H: Five Years. 98-CR-023-001-H: Five years.

The defendant was released from federal custody to Harris County, Texas on January 15, 1999. She was released from Harris County, Texas on January 28, 1999. The defendant failed to report to any federal probation office within seventy-two hours of her release as required by the instructions on her Judgement and Commitment Order. 1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event, later than seventy-two hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If the judgement imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant owes $7,856.22 restitution to Bank One Recovery Department of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
3. The defendant shall not own, or possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
4. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U.S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

6. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in Miscellaneous Order Number M-128, filed with the Clerk of the Court on March 18, 1992.
7. As a condition of supervised release, upon completion of your term or imprisonment, if an Immigration and Naturalization Service detainer is lodged, you are to be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official for deportation in accordance with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Act, 8 USC §§ 1101-1524. It is a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported, you shall remain outside the United States until termination of the term of supervised release.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT AND FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

1. VIOLATION OF GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION: "The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event, latter than seventy-two hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons."

The defendant has not reported to any probation office since her release on January 28, 1999. A letter mailed to her last known address in Cambridge, Ontario, Canada was undeliverable.

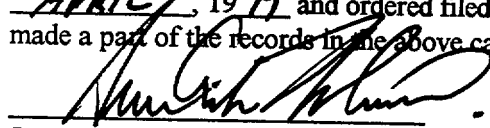

EVIDENCE OF THE VIOLATION:

1. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibits A(1), A(2) and A(3) are certified copies of the Judgement in a Criminal Case, #97-CR-180-001-H, #98-CR-022-H, and #98-CR-023-001-H which order the defendant to report as stated in Violation #1.
2. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit B is a letter and envelope mailed to the defendant's last known address which has been stamped by postal authorities as undeliverable.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that a warrant be issued for the arrest of the defendant so she may be brought before the Court to show cause why her supervised release should not be revoked.

Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years

Dear Ms. Rozak:

I have just learned that you were released by Harris County, Texas authorities on January 28 and that you were returning to the above address.

As you are aware, my office is responsible for supervising your Term of Supervised Release for the next three years. Since we have not initiated supervision, the three year term does not begin to run until we have established contact with you and made arrangement to maintain contact with you.

I want to assure you that we will do everything possible to accommodate whatever arrangements you want to make regarding this matter, but we must establish contact. Once I have succeeded at establishing contact with you, I plan to ask our Buffalo, New York office to assist us since you are reasonably close to that office.

Please write to me at the above address or you may call me at (918) 699-4801 to discuss your plans. If I'm not in the office, if you call, tell the duty officer your residence address and telephone number.

Please understand that the three years cannot begin to run until we establish contact. Also, if you return to the United States, you are required to report immediately to the nearest U.S. Probation Office.

Sincerely,
